FINANCES
MUST BE PUT IN ORDER

To Be Exacted If Cery Does Not Take the Necessary Steps.

April 11.—The reparations commission has approved the text of a German memorandum informing her that the decision of March regarding payments to
May 31, is maintained,
if Germany does not take measures to put her finances in order by May 31 to exact penalties in reply to the last demand from Chancellor Wirth.
The commission's views regarding Germany's efforts and insists upon the necessity of establishing financial order, without any desire to interfere with the interior administration of the German nation.
The commission, which comprises nearly equal numbers of French and American members, has granted a moratorium on reparations payments for two years.
Germany are categorically reernment make "a better demonstration of fiscal courage, for example with regard to taxation on current industrial and commercial profits." It recommends an immediate and drastic increase of taxation, saying that the hope of a considerable German foreign loan is chimerical until a serious effort is made to restore the internal budget equilibrium.

TEXAS WETS DEMAND LIGHT WINES AND BEER

Seeking 48,000 Signatures To a Petition.

Dallas, Tex., April 14.—Wet forces, led by former Governor James E.
Ferguson, are seeking 48,000 signers to petitions to bring the light wine and beer issue before the July primaries in Texas. Ferguson is a candidate for the United States senate.
The petitions ask the state Democratic executive committee to submit the question, thereby raising a prohibition fight within the ranks of a major party.
Joseph P. Tumulty is quoted by Ferguson forces to the effect that Woodrow Wilson sponsored a proposed plank in the national Democratic platform at San Francisco to legalize the sale of light wine and beer. The plank was not presented because the "atmosphere of the convention was dry," the Ferguson forces assert.

Presbytery Defied.
Brookline, Mass., April 14.—Rev.
Edwin Curtis, who some of his flock asserted, baptized a dog and asked a blessing on "French fried potatoes," was re-elected pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this town by members assembled in annual meeting. The action was taken in defiance of the Boston presbytery, which ruled that Mr. Curtis, who was on probation as pastor of the church, was not eligible and had refused to install him two weeks ago.

HORSES ARE SEIZED
FOR FOOD IN STREETS

No Longer Safe To Venture
Outside—People Eating Hu-

Paris, April 14.—A number of American drivers of relief wagons in Russia have been killed in the streets by the famished people, who seized the horses for food, according to reports received by American relief organizations in Paris from the Bash-keer, Ufa and Tcheliabinsk famine districts.

Two drivers for the American relief administration were killed this week, the reports said. Several other employees of the relief administration, fearing their lives, have quit their posts, the reports added.

The danger has become so great that it is no longer safe to venture into the streets. People are being killed every day, it is said, and the natives, maddened from starvation, strip the clothes from the bodies of their victims.

Reports said the Americans were feeding 150,000 sufferers in the Ufa district, where it is bitterly cold, but that the death rate was continuing unabated. People were said to be

THIS NEW STYLE RUDDER AIDS IN RIVER TRAFFIC

This new style rudder will be a boon to river traffic. It is capable of stopping a vessel within its own length and when set at a certain position is able to turn the ship about in an almost complete circle.

ness and size of the improvement over the old-fashioned style, which

Captain Quisling, representing the insians will have died of famine before the next crops are harvested.

SISLER'S BATTING SECRET REVEALED

Confesses It's His Mechanical Optic.

PLAYER A GRADUATE
MECHANICAL ENGINEER

When First Baseman Socks Out
Dependable One You'll Know
It Is Engineered.

Chicago, April 14.—At last it comes out.

The success of George Sisler, crack first baseman of the St. Louis Americans who clouted his way into the lead of the league's batsmen, two seasons ago and almost approached this record in his playing last year, remains a secret no longer.

It is his mechanical eye. Sounds a bit strange, but George confessed as much today before mounting the sack with the Browns in the third of their series with the White Sox. And here's the story in a nutshell.

George holds a degree in mechanical engineering. He received it from the University of Michigan in 1916 after five years of hard study.

So now, when you witness the star first baseman sock out a dependable one, you'll know it was engineered with considerable mechanical.

Each deflecting milligram of the ball in its journey to the home plate is measured in the accuracy of a skilled craftsman with micrometers secreted in the retina of the batsman's eye.

"It's true," George declared.

"What's more, in the last few months of earnest practice these imaginary instruments have been tuned up to an almost infallible degree."

FOR THE MAN WHO CARES

CHESTER HANOVER WINS LAST OF Y. M. C. A. RACES

Runs Two Miles in Thirteen Minutes and Eight Seconds.

HARRY SULLIVAN
TAKES SECOND PLACE

Kenneth Robinson Wins Third
ward—Event Considered Best of Contests.

Two miles in thirteen minutes and eight seconds was the record made by Chester Hanover, winner in the closing race staged this morning as the last of the series held this week under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Harry Sullivan came under the wire in the second place and Kenneth Robinson third. The boys finished so close that no time was taken except in the winner.

This morning's race was considered the best of the three in point of competition and enthusiasm as well as time. The boys set away in fine shape with Charles Tope in the lead for a short distance. They went into Mt. Vernon from Grand avenue with Russell Evans, Harry Sullivan, Earl Dean, Kenneth Robinson and Chester Hanover running abreast. The crowd diminished slightly when Sullivan lost his wind and fell back at Greenwood street and Dean followed suit at Bradford street.

Close Time at Finish.
Sullivan popped up and joined in the real thrill of the race which came in the last lap, from "five points" in, when between five and ten boys sprinted for the goal resulting in the close time at the finish. Shortly before the start of the race young Hanover, who is fifteen years old, removed his shoes and ran the course barefooted.

The race was witnessed by a large crowd as were both Wednesday and Thursday's races. Chief J. W. Thompson acted as starter and Mayor George Neely, judge of the course. The judges were Ernest Wideman, F. C. Hughes, E. C. Mackan, Dr. E. L. Brady, H. F. Palmer and Dr. J. G. McNamara. C. E. Clough, of the Y. M. C. A., acted as clerk of the course.

Three Awards.
The awards were first, baseball glove, from Haberman Hardware company; second, pair of running shoes, from Smart & Waddell Shoe store; third, shirt, from Jim Dugan's Clothing store.

The entrants were Homer Griffith, George Drake, John Evans, Russell Evans, Kenneth Selter, Harry Sullivan, George McNamara, Sam Brown, Robert Chase, Charles Tope, Wilford Jerew, Clarence Boyd, Virgil Williams, Howard Geisler, Gale Dean, Kenneth Robinson and Chester Hanover.

Plans are under way for a field meet open to the boys of the city in the near future, under the auspices of the physical department of the Y. M. C. A.

League Meets.
The Bethlehem Trinity Luther league met at the home of Miss Madella Selter, south of Marion, Wednesday evening. After the business meeting the evening was passed with music, games and contests. Guests were Miss Emma Leffler, Garland Matthews, Harry Gruber, Clifford Leffler and Fred Baldauf. The meeting in May will be at the home of Floyd Baldauf.

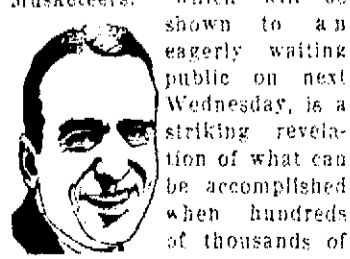

Mrs. Parrel O'Riley, of No. 274 Reed avenue, who has been ill for the past eight days, is able to be up and is improving nicely.

The little country has an uneasy feeling that if Europe is left to help herself she will take a second helping.

Awarded Temporary Alimony.
In the divorce action of Louise Wells against Harry B. Wells, the plaintiff was allowed $50 temporary alimony by Judge Grant E. Mouser today, the amount to be payable forthwith.

Mrs. Carl McKee, of Columbus, who underwent an operation at the city hospital was removed this morning to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Selby, of west Center street.

IN FOUR MORE DAYS
Douglas Fairbanks
in Alexandre Dumas'
"The Three Musketeers"

Just four more fast flying days, then—a revelation! For Douglas Fairbanks in "The Three Musketeers" which will be shown to an eagerly waiting public on next Wednesday, is a striking revelation of what can be accomplished when hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent, not extravagantly but with judgment, on the picture-making of a matchless fine story! It is a drama worthy of Fairbanks—and Fairbanks has made a production worthy of the story!

ESCAPING GAS EXPLODES; BURNS BANK CASHIER

Blast in Mt. Cleland Bank Vault Breaks Windows.

GAS IGNITED FROM MATCH TO LIGHT JET

J. W. Glaumer, Cashier, Enters Vault To Light Jet—Face and Hands Burned.

Mt. Cleland, O., April 13.—(Special 1.)—J. W. Glaumer, cashier of the Marrow County National bank, received serious burns to the face and hands when a gas pipe exploded in the bank vault yesterday at about 8:30 o'clock this morning. As he was about to light the gas jet in the vault, the force of the explosion shattered the large plate glass window in the side of the bank building.

It is believed that the gas light, which was turned on during a meeting of the directors at the bank last night, was not completely turned off and that the vault was filled with gas from this source. Mr. Glaumer was removed to his home and his place was taken by H. R. Talmage.

Another sure sign of spring is the tinkle of window glass as the kids begin to bat flies.

Resurrection
Plants
25c Each

THE most marvelous and mystifying of plants. It is said to have been discovered by the Crusaders on one of their expeditions to recover the Holy Land—and that it was touched by the Virgin Mary on her flight into Egypt—which touch perhaps gave the plant everlasting life.

This plant will live for countless ages—either in water or in its apparently dead form. And when you first see it you would naturally think it was dead—but after you put it in water for about ten minutes it begins to uncurl and about an hour or two afterwards it becomes a beautiful shade of green. And within a day or two it has changed into a beautiful, big green fern—and will stay that way for centuries (they tell us.)

Every home should have one of these plants. On sale in our Art Department, 25c.

SELLERS KITCHEN CABINETS

"The Best Servant in Your House"

Thirty years ago the Sellers was created to save work for women. Each year more conveniences, more improvements have been added. Today it is a masterpiece of scientific arrangement—a labor-saver that is driving kitchen drudgery out of the lives of thousands of mothers and wives—making more happy women—more happy husbands—more happy children—because mother has more time to enjoy things with them.

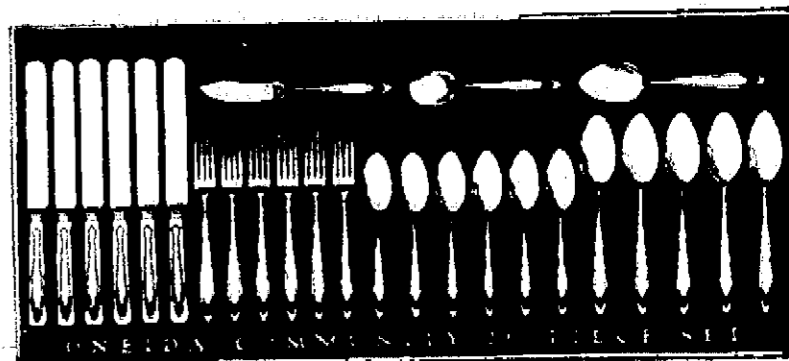

This great sale is to celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the Sellers. It has been going on for two weeks. Many more women know what a comfort and help a Sellers is than knew before. Many, too, have learned that it is cheaper by 50% to buy a Sellers than to build in a cabinet. Only one more day remains. Tomorrow night the 30th Anniversary Sale will end. If you are ever going to eliminate the needless work you are doing—if you are ever going to take the first step toward freedom from the chains that bind you to the kitchen—the drudgery that is slowly wearing you out—making you old before your time—now is the time.

That may sound strong. But it is not too strong. Thousands and thousands of mothers and wives are sacrificing every vestige of pleasure in the treadmill of household duties, because they think they can't afford it.

DETENTION HOME GIRL TAKES MERCURY TABLET

Miss Margaret Plummer Taken to City Hospital.

SAID TO HAVE TAKEN
TABLET IN FIT OF ANGER

Following Quarrel with Other Girls at Home—Is Given Medical Attention.

Miss Margaret Plummer, aged nineteen years, of Mansfield, who has been at the Bain detention home since one week ago last Wednesday, took a tablet of bichloride of mercury at the home about 10:30 o'clock this morning, and as a result, she is now in a serious condition at the City hospital.

The girl is said to have taken the tablet in a fit of anger following a quarrel with some of the other girls at the home. The burning effects of the tablet caused her to appeal to Miss Fairbridge Jones, who is in charge in the absence of Mrs. Addison Bain, and when the girl informed Miss Jones what she had done a physician was called. An emetic was at once given the girl and she was then removed to the hospital.

The Plummer girl had the bottle of tablets in her grip when she was taken to the home. The attending physician stated that the tablet was sufficient to cause death and that the results can not be determined for a day or two.

OHIO WESLEYAN WINS NINE DEBATES

Defeats Eight of Leading Colleges in the East.

Nine debates, now taking the affirmative, now the negative, debates with eight of the leading colleges and universities of the United States from Harvard University and Colgate in the East to Occidental University in Los Angeles, and all nine debates won—that is the unique record of Ohio Wesleyan during the present season. The debates in every instance were upon live issues of the day, such as, "The Cancellation of the Allied War Debts."

Never before has such a record been made except by a superlative football or track team. It proves that the head can be trained as well as the heels, even in a college.

TAGGING THE BASES

Two more members of the much-advertised Pirate pitching staff, Glazner and Morrison, were given the rough-dry treatment by the St. Louis Cardinals. The latter got twelve hits, including home runs by Smith and Almsmith.

With the continued absence of Ty Cobb from the lineup, the Detroit Tigers dropped another to the Indians, Elms having two bad innings. Both teams hit safely eleven times, but the Indians knew what to do.

The Athletics pulled a great comeback yesterday and managed to lose to the Boston Red Sox, with their accustomed ease. Pratt led the hitting with two doubles and two singles.

"Irish" Meusel's second home run in as many days featured the Giants victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers. Where is my wandering Ruth to-night?

The White Sox were stopped again by the Browns. Danforth held the Sox to seven hits.

Parkinson, who hit a homer on opening day, tripled in the eighth inning, scoring two runs and giving the Phillies their second straight victory over the Boston Braves. The Philadelphia fans are wondering what it is all about.

Some one opened a box of "rawberries" on the Chicago bench during the first inning and Umpire Bill Klem, who doesn't care for the delicacy, chased fourteen Cubs to the showers. Ultimately, the Cubs won their second straight from the Cincinnati Reds.

It remained for the under-handed Mr. Mays to pitch the Yanks to their first victory of the season. He held the Senators to six hits and never at any time did he obey that impulse to hurl the ball over the grandstand.

The strength of the St. Louis Cardinals has been demonstrated rather forcibly during the last few days. With three regulars out of the opening game, two of them out of the second game and an apparent five-thumbed individual performing at short stop, in both contests, they have knocked the Pirates for a set of invisible hairpins.

Those sincere hitters of the Cardinals will win many a ball game even though the defense may be a bit careworn at times.

Third Game Cancelled.

Chicago, April 14.—The third game of the series between the Chicago White Sox and the St. Louis Browns, scheduled for this afternoon, was called off just before noon because of cold weather.

My Marriage Problems

Adele Garrison's New Phase of

Revelations of a Wife

Copyright, 1921, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Feminine moods and reactions are curious things, almost as odd as those characteristic of the masculine mind.

I had been excited almost to hero worship of my husband while I had listened to the war reminiscences of himself and Dr. McDermon. But the earnestness and the evident distaste with which he met my enthusiastic comment when the little physician had departed from the hotel suite chilled my ardor effectively and made me cautious, unreasonable—and unhappy.

I slept but fitfully in the comfortable but strange bed, and awakened in the morning just as the first daylight appeared beneath the window curtains with a vague feeling of depression, which deepened to positive pettishness as I heard Dicky snoring—there was no softening name for it—in the bed next mine.

I rose upon my elbow and looked at him sprawled comfortably upon his back with his mouth open. Even so good-looking a chap as my husband could not overcome such a handicap, and I said to myself crossly that he looked like anything but the romantic hero I had put upon a shrine while I listened to the little doctor's saga.

I was going along very comfortably in a pettish inventory of the depressing lines—imperfectly when he is awake and animated—which the years were bringing to Dicky's face, when I chanced to get another salutary glance at my black eye and discolored forehead in the mirror. I shuddered at the thought which came to me of the narrow escape I had had by awakening early. Suppose Dicky had awakened first and had inventoried my appearance!

I crept out of bed noiselessly and bathed and dressed without waking Dicky. Years of housekeeping give one the advantage of knowing the breakfast tastes of one's family, so with the bedroom door closed, I telephoned an order to the dining-room for grapefruit, cereal, bacon, eggs, muffins and coffee for two with the certainty that Dicky would approve of and enjoy the meal.

He called to me as I hung up the telephone, and as I opened the bedroom door I saw that his morning mood matched my own.

"What's the big idea?" he demanded crossly. "Here you are getting up in the middle of the night and waking everybody in the hotel! Do you think they'll send me a breakfast at this time in the morning?"

His irritation put the match to mine. But the thought of the task I had before me put out the flame almost before it had kindled, and I was able to smother my resentment and to answer him with disarming matter-of-factness.

"They said they would serve it in half an hour," I returned. "So you won't have to hurry."

"I won't?" Dicky drawled provocingly. "Isn't that sweet of you? Ideal consideration, I call it. But if you think I'm going to get up to breakfast in half an hour you've got several more things coming, that's

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup of water with a little warm water is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—Adv.

Linger up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest St. Jacobs Oil at any drug store, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness and stiffness. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. St. Jacobs Oil is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.—Adv.

TAKE GUDE'S PEPTO-MANGAN

It is the Safe and Reliable Tonic Used by Physicians for 30 Years.

There are "new styles" even in medicines. A new "fad" came into popular for a while, and then faded out of public view. A remedy that has stood the test for thirty years must have remarkable merit and can not be called a "fad." Such is Gude's Pepto-Mangan, originated by Dr. A. Gude over a quarter century ago, which has helped many thousands of people back to good health by improving the blood. Pepto-Mangan is an iron tonic. It contains iron in a special form easily absorbed by the system. It puts color into the lips and cheeks and improves the entire body by supporting and enriching the blood. It is sold by druggists in both liquid and tablet form. If you want to be well and strong and happy and healthy, take Gude's Pepto-Mangan.—Adv.

Some people are inclined to underestimate the ability of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., falling into the error of assuming that he is a figure in the world merely as a result of his father's great wealth, when, as a matter of fact, he has made himself a man of high ability in spite of it.

We note that the paragraph of the Ohio State Journal is spending a vacation in Atlantic City, stopping at the Brighton at his kind employer's expense. It's no affair of ours, but why a man with an abdomen so badly impaired that milk toast is his food limit should put up at the hotel credited with the most elaborate menus on the island is a mystery to us. Looks like a wilful waste of good money.

GENERAL HAYES' HUNDRETH BIRTHDAY.

October 4, this year, Fremont will observe the 100th anniversary of the birth of Rutherford B. Hayes, nineteenth president of the United States. The new $10,000 addition to the Hayes Memorial library of the Ohio Archaeological and Historical society, and memorial fund to be erected at Hayes grave entrance will be dedicated in connection with the centenary.

It would be most appropriate if Delaware, Newark, Gambler and Cincinnati should join Fremont in a particularly active way, because all are so intimately connected with the life of Hayes.

Delaware is the scene of General Hayes' birth. Thousands, passing through Delaware, have been shown the house where he was born. This building has now been purchased by an association, which is to preserve it.

After obtaining his early education in the Fremont schools, the boy who was to become president attended an academy at Newark. It was in Newark that he learned many of the lessons of youth that, in after life, stood him in good stead. And it was at Gambler that he graduated from college in 1842 as the valedictorian of his class.

For many years General Hayes lived in Cincinnati. His military career began in the Queen City at the outbreak of the civil war, when he was elected captain of a company formed from the old Liberty club. He was city solicitor of Cincinnati from 1858 until April, 1861. Near the close of the war, he was elected to congress from the Cincinnati district and re-elected. He was elected governor of Ohio in 1867 and again in 1869, when he returned to Cincinnati. On 1873, he moved to his old home in Fremont, determined to retire from public life. In 1875, he was for a third time elected governor on a "sound money" platform. That campaign drew the national political spotlight, and when the Republican national convention met in Cincinnati in 1878 he was nominated for the presidency and subsequently elected. He refused to run for a second term, returning to his home in Fremont, where he died January 7, 1893.

Of course, the observance of General Hayes' 100th birthday will be national in its scope, but it will belong mainly to Ohio and, particularly, Fremont, Delaware, Newark, Gambler and Cincinnati.

It doesn't look like good politics on the part of the Toledo young woman who wants to go to the state senate to let it be known that she once took a prize as a bathing beauty. The men voters of her district may feel that it's good business to keep such publicity at home.

When a man out in Los Angeles presented a check at a bank for $5,000,000, one of the tellers called police headquarters and the man was taken to a psychiatric ward of the county hospital. The time to have pulled a stunt like that was during the war.

ABOUT HOROLOGICAL HISTORY.

The 150th birthday, April 13, of Eli Terry, the father of the clock industry in America, recalls that at Marion's centennial celebration in July, an assortment of clocks used in Marion by the pioneers on down to the present generation is to be one of the many very interesting features. Among those will be the year clock which was wound on its owner's birthday, or in honor of the birthday of some one else.

The water-clock is the most ancient form of clock known. It was operated by a water current. The next improvement was the substitution of a weight for the water. Archimedes being credited with this device. Finally, the pendulum was utilized by Galileo.

The pocket-watch is not so ancient. It had its origin in Germany. Up until the last half of the nineteenth century watchmaking was confined largely to Switzerland and England, but it remained for America to make a radical departure from established ways and revolutionize the industry of clockmaking. In a word, this was effected by the introduction of impersonal machines for the required skill of the individual worker. The first clock manufacturing establishment was constructed at Roxbury, Massachusetts, in 1849, and in 1851 a new factory was built at Waltham, Massachusetts, and this factory with a great many additions and alterations, of course, exists today as the largest and oldest watch factory in America.

If old Archimedes, the Greek philosopher and mechanical genius could only come back and attend Marion's centennial and see the clock display, wouldn't he open his eyes wide?

REMEMBER THE "WEINIE CAN" MAN?

The "weinie can" man was a popular individual on the streets of Marion on cold nights many years ago. Why he disappeared is not exactly known, but there was a time when he was numerous and conspicuous on the streets all over the country.

"They're smoking hot and still a-heatin'." Remember it? That was the "weinie can" man's song—"They're smoking hot and still a-heatin'."

Real horseshadish and eye bread with a hot water between—yum, yum! Somehow, the "weinie" today don't taste like they did when the "weinie can" man was on the job. We suppose that the "weinie" are made just the same as they were then, with the same kind of meat and everything, but they don't strike the same spot as they did then.

Maybe it was because they were hot, kept hot with charcoal under the can, and maybe, too, it was because we were younger. Anyhow, the "weinie can" man is a mere memory.

HERE'S TO THE HURRAH BOYS!

"Hurrah!" Originally that word was Russian. It's a shout of joy, of triumph.

What would the college boys do without the hurrah? What did they do before hurrah was imported?

Putting the "hurrah" into things means "pop," back of it, and the modern denotation of "pop" is energy.

Hurrah puts a smile into life. It's the applause that the one applauded likes to hear. It encourages; it makes one feel that there is something in life worth while. It makes one feel that there are fewer knucklers in the world than he first thought.

A great big hurrah is worth more than all the knucks by the chronic knucker. More power to the hurrah boys!

LIFE'S VAUDEVILLE.
(By Dr. James Ball Naylor.)

FILIPINO SUPERSTITIONS.

Of course we ultra-modern and duly-cultured Americans have no superstitions, and, of course, we count the more primitive peoples who do have superstitions.

The Philippines are the home of superstitions. If we may give credence to the statements of an American teacher who has spent seven years in the islands there. This teacher is Charles H. Mosser, of Jones City, Oklahoma, and, in the Oklahoma County News, he reports quite a number of these Filipino superstitions.

I desire to note a number of them—and in doing so in the pastime of offering my own comments.

"If a cat licks the stairs or door, it is a sign that one of the inhabitants is going to die."

"Humph!" If a cat does a thing of that kind in my house—it's a sign the cat's going to die.

"Always move into a new house at the beginning of the new moon."

Move every new moon—whether you move into a new house or not; it's cheaper to move than to pay rent.

"If any one sends you a present, such as meat or fruit—"

It's not necessary to quote any more of that; nobody in this enlightened country ever sends such presents.

"A young lady should not sing while cooking or near the stove, else she will marry an old widower."

Now observe how the old maids who read this will begin to hug the kitchen stove and warble.

"If you have started anywhere and see a snake, you will have good luck."

That's right. Many travelers would consider themselves lucky to be able to see snakes.

"The plates must not be taken away from the table while a young lady is eating, or she will get an old and ugly man for a husband."

It isn't considered good form to steal the spoons, either—while the young lady is observing.

"Hating a cat causes rain."

Go! I'll bet that's so—not only causes rain, but thunder, lightning, hail, high winds, and general elemental uproar. I'll say this: there's going to be a protracted drought in this country next summer—if the coming of rain depends upon my hating a cat.

"Dried monkey meat is an excellent remedy for removing smallpox scars."

Gosh! Does the unfortunate have to eat the meat? Maybe it removes the scars—by removing the patient. I think I shall kill a little navy congressman—and try the thing out on some pock-marked enemy.

"When the light burns dimly, there is a ghost near."

There must be a whole colony of ghosts in our electric-light plant, then.

"If a hen crows at night between the hours of 8 and 12, it is a sign that a spinster has been stolen by an old bachelor."

Hallelujah! And if a rooster crows along about 3 o'clock in the morning, it's a sign that a spinster is making off with some hapless old bachelor.

"People with big ears will live longer than those with small ones."

That settles it! We're to be pestered with the Democratic donkey forever!

SOBER BY CHANCE.

For Sale—One hundred good barrels. Inquire of L. L. Sober, at Norman's Laundry.—Declarator Herald.

One hundred good barrels. My wallet I pull. He is Sober, he says— "The barrels must be full."

"Paderewski Practicing Daily," says a headline. Practicing at what—plans or politics?

The modern young woman isn't content to accept a mate; she desires a captain, at least—and prefers a captain of industry.

IZZY AND MOE, BOOTLEGGERS' FOES.

If you don't know who Izzy and Moe are you are just as well off, and you are better off if you ever buy any of the forbidden hooch.

Izzy and Moe are two New York detectives. They are not publicly known by other names. They talk freely and easily with reporters, and they deliver the goods. They have set a new pace in capturing violators of the liquor laws and their likenesses are liable to spread throughout the country.

Izzy and Moe have taken the average booze-hunting tactics out of the prosaic and substituted romance. First, they enter a saloon as automobile tourists. Their clothes are splashed with mud and they say something about their "gas" and the make of their car—and buy drinks. They are good judges of whisky and if it happens to be whisky, they immediately lie themselves before some court of law and cause the arrest of the proprietor. Then, again, Izzy and Moe play some other role to fool the bootleggers, and they are making good.

Izzy and Moe have proved themselves terrors to the bootleggers of New York. They've put a lot of jazz into their work.

The next thing, we suppose, Izzy and Moe will be opening an Izzy and Moe detective correspondence school.

Mr. Cox still hitches his chariot to that foreign-bred horse known as "League of Nations."

The Boston banker who would dislodge Senator Lodge from his top by the election route will find "the stormy petrel" the most difficult catch he ever attempted.

Wall street financiers predict a great business revival because of the steady-rising market. But we know a better business barometer than that; money is again being invested in productive industry.

PURE RELIGION—Pure religion and unadorned before God and the Father is this. To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.—James 1: 27.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

W. P. Kimball was setting stakes in the Erie yards preparatory to installing all the tracks four streets. The raising was made necessary because of the new interlocking system. Work of excavating for the Syracuse-Sandusky R.R. was begun. Announcement was made that money due Marion militiamen for service in the Porto Rican campaign was in the hands of Captain F. W. The

PEACE DEPENDS ON BASIC PAY

Mine Leader and an Operator in Debate.

AVERAGE WAGES OF OHIO MEN $550 YEAR

Operator Places Average at $1,200—Strikers Throwing Dust in Public Eye.

Columbus, April 14.—There will be no peace in the carbon coal mines until a basic wage, applying to all miners, is established by a general agreement, according to George W. Savage, Columbus secretary-treasurer, Ohio United Mine Workers.

Savage's statement was made during a debate with W. H. Haskins, Coshocton, secretary-treasurer, Central Ohio Coal Operators' association, at a meeting of members of the Young Businessmen's club here.

Assertion that the only practical way of settling wage scales is by means of sectional agreements between miners and operators was made by Haskins.

Savage said the average wage received by Ohio miners last year was $550 per man. Haskins placed the average at $1,200.

Says Losses Great.

Declaring operators believe in a coal miners' union, Haskins said reports of enormous daily losses, due to the strike constitute "efforts to throw sand in the people's eye."

He said the miners can only operate six months a year in supplying the demand for coal.

Savage said the miners do not expect to obtain concessions under any new wage agreement. He declared that the five day week and the six hour day are "merely something to demand, but we don't always get what we ask."

Both men agreed that, in order to lower coal prices for consumers, a more efficient distribution system is needed.

Governor as Witness.

Charleston, W. Va., April 14.—Both the prosecution and defense today summoned Governor E. F. Morgan as a witness in the trials of the United Mine Workers' officials and members with treason against the state and insurrection in connection with the miners' armed march of last summer. The trials begin at Charleston April 24.

Mother Jones in Charleston.

Charleston, W. Va., April 14.—"Mother" Jones, veteran labor leader, who arrived here last night, was still in the city today in conference with union officials. The purpose of her visit was not announced.

Her last visit here was last summer, when miners were assembling at Marietta for their march to Mingo. After she had appealed to them to disband, they voted to accept her advice, but later rescinded this action.

The general situation in the mine strike was unchanged today.

Little Hope for Peace.

Washington, April 14.—Government officials who are dealing with the national coal strike, hold little hope at present for an immediate settlement that will bring the miners to work, it was learned today.

Following an hour's conference with President Harding, Attorney General Daugherty said that it "was too soon" for the government to make an effort to end the strike, while Chairman Nolan, of the house labor committee, declared that there was little chance of settling the controversy in the soft coal mines until wage negotiations were effected in the anthracite fields.

GOMPERS OPPOSES ONE BIG UNION IDEA

Labor Chief Declares It Is Bolshevistic.

Chicago, April 14.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, fought the "one big union idea" here. Gompers, here to confer with labor chiefs on local labor problems, branded the "one big union" resolution recently adopted by the Chicago federation of labor as bolshevistic. The resolution was sponsored by President John Fitzpatrick of the federation and William Z. Foster, leader in the last steel strike.

Gompers charged that Foster was an apostle of Lenin. "I am still young enough to fight the radical propaganda which aims to destroy the American trades union movement," Gompers said.

Christian Smuts, of the Union of South Africa, during the revolt of mine strikers at Johannesburg were revealed today when an alleged Russian giving the name of Frank Cohen was arraigned in court at Johannesburg, said a Central News despatch from Johannesburg today.

Cohen said he made his home in rebel headquarters and that it was from this house that shots were fired at General Smuts in an effort to kill him.

Poss Predicts Victory.

Washington, April 14.—The flat prediction that he would win the Republican senatorial nomination in Ohio this year was made today by Representative Simon D. Fess. "I will carry" Fess said, "all counties outside the counties which have large cities, and even in those, I will get my share of votes. Reports that President Harding is taking a hand in the contest are utterly untrue."

Record Rainfall.

Athens, April 14.—The heaviest rain in twenty years fell throughout Athens county last night. Federal creek at Amesville, rose fifteen feet during the night and already has done several thousand dollars damage to lumbermen and business houses. REAL WATCHES FOR A TRIFLE

Seventy-Eight Cents for Gold-Filled Timepieces.

GERMANY SENDING SHIPMENTS HERE

Safety Razors with Blades Sell at a Total Cost of Only Eighteen Cents.

Washington, April 14.—Gold-filled, six-jewel watches, carrying a twenty-year guarantee, are being sold in the United States by German manufacturers for sixty cents. With the duty paid they cost a total of seventy-eight cents.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Elmer Dyer made that statement here today, as he took from his desk two German timepieces, carefully wrapped in tissue paper. One was a man's watch, the other a woman's wrist watch.

To prove this statement he showed a letter, which accompanied the timepieces. It was from the collector of the port of New York, who told of the receipts of large shipments of these watches.

The woman's watch was of the customary small size. It had one more jewel than the man's, a band of black silk ribbon, and a gold-filled clasp for the arm. It cost a total of $1.72, delivered in New York.

Take Losses to Kill Competition.

Mr. Dyer said German safety razors with six blades are being manufactured in Germany, shipped across the Atlantic and delivered in the United States at a total cost of eighteen cents.

While the increased purchasing power of American money accounts in part for the ability of dealers in the United States to buy German goods at seemingly ridiculous low prices, the collector of New York believes that the American markets are being flooded with German-made goods at less than cost of manufacture abroad, for the purpose of driving all competitors out of this market.

Mr. Dyer has asked the collector general for an opinion as to whether the "anti-dumping clause" of the emergency tariff act can be employed to prevent the flooding of American markets with these cheap products.

Mr. Dyer said that men's watches bought at a total cost of seventy-eight cents each are being sold by retailers in this country for $1.19, while a large cheap watch manufacturing concern in the United States has been forced into bankruptcy.

It is contended here that the woman's wrist watch being imported at a total cost of $1.72 could not be produced in America for less than four dollars.

German-made vacuum bottles, which sell retail for four dollars, which sell retail for four dollars, are being sold in wholesale quantities here at seventy-three cents each.

City People Study Farming.

Columbus, April 14.—Of 13,048 who are not on the student or alumni rolls of 25 correspondence courses which Ohio State university has been offering since 1915, something more than half are farmers. The other half includes convicts, millionaires, newspapermen, clergymen, stenographers, actors, barbers, professional ball players and lawyers. "The farming instinct seems universal," remarks J. E. McClintock, supervisor of the work, who has been surveying his immense student body.

Farm Pay Near Normal.

Columbus, April 14.—Average farm wage on April 1 was from $3 to $10 lower than a year ago, according to a compilation made by C. J. West, federal agricultural statistician. The average wage in Ohio now is $32 a month, the report shows. "The supply of labor in most sections of the state is sufficient for all needs, so that normal labor conditions on Ohio farms are not far away," said West.

REBELS MAY NOT HEED DE VALERA

Irish Leader May Be Unable To Enforce Truce.

MUTINEERS MAY OUST HIM AS THEIR CHIEF

De Valera Said To Be Seeking To Delay Election—Free State Leaders Oppose.

Dublin, April 14.—Following the failure of the Irish truce conference to reach an agreement, the mutinous faction of the Irish republican army began to reinforce its troops in Dublin today.

It is feared that even if Eamon de Valera does conclude a truce with the Irish provisional government, he will be unable to enforce it. This city looks forward to Easter Sunday with dread. The situation is tense.

The report that the Irish republican army rebels are going to oust de Valera from his position as chief leader of the Irish republicans again became current today. There is evidence that de Valera is seeking to delay the Irish election, but it is unlikely Michael Collins or Arthur Griffith will agree to this.

No Support from Cleveland.

Cleveland, April 14.—Mutinous republicans in Ireland can expect neither moral nor financial aid from Clevelanders, according to a cablegram made public today, signed by prominent Irishmen and other friends of the freedom of Ireland. Among the signers are Bishop Schrembs of the Cleveland diocese, and Prosecuting Attorney Edward C. Stanton.

LONE BANDIT FAILS IN MAIL TRUCK HOLD-UP

Pistol Duel Is Followed by the Arrest of Ex-Convict.

Granite City, Ills., April 14.—A daring attempt by a lone bandit to rob a United States mail truck of $53,000 in currency was foiled shortly before noon today by the watchfulness of postoffice inspectors stationed along the route which the truck followed.

Following a pistol duel in which a score of shots whistled through the streets of the business section of the town, Paddy Conway, of St. Louis, former convict, was arrested, charged with the attempted holdup.

Attacks Attorney General.

Washington, April 14.—Federal prosecution of some alleged war profiteers was halted by "influences outside of the department of justice," H. L. Scaife, former investigator for Attorney General Daugherty, charged in a prepared statement. Scaife bitterly assailed Daugherty, declaring that the attorney general, in his announced campaign on war profiteers and grafters has, so far, only "small fish" on his line, and that when "the real quarry is jumped the attorney general becomes weary."

OLDEST WOMAN MAYOR HANDS IN RESIGNATION

Eighty-Year-Old Executive of Magnetic Springs Quits.

Magnetic Springs, O., April 14.—"Mother and daughter" fought a losing fight with old line "politicians" here.

This was revealed today with the announcement of the resignation of Mrs. Harry V. McFadden, eighty-eight year old woman mayor in the United States.

In announcing her retirement to the peace of her kitchen, Mrs. McFadden disclosed that her attempt to stir up civic virtue in other old timers by feeding them coffee and doughnuts at council meetings had failed miserably.

"It worked all right for a few years," the ex-mayor said.

Then interest began to lag, and I found officials were fighting my reforms. I called them together and things went better for a while after I'd given them a heart-to-heart talk, but it's no use now. "You can't reform a politician. He'll tell you one thing and then do another. They're all alike. I'm through."

New York, April 14.—John McCormack, famous Irish tenor, whose serious illness has alarmed music lovers, passed a restful night last night and was improved this morning, it was said at his home.

STRIKE SEEN IN PAPER MILLS

Employees Explode Bombshell at Conference.

CONTRACT WITH MEN TO EXPIRE ON MAY 1

Only Ten Days' Supply of Newsprint Available—Ten Per Cent. Cut Proposed.

New York, April 14.—A strike affecting nearly half a million paper mill workers, which would cut production of newsprint paper 4,500 tons daily and leave available for newspaper publication only ten days' supply, seemed inevitable for May 1, this afternoon when a bombshell was exploded by the employees at wage negotiations being conducted here.

When representatives of employers and employees met at the Murray Hill hotel to negotiate a new contract replacing one which expires May 1, the paper-makers announced their proposals were a ten per cent. cut for skilled workers, return to local rates for the unskilled and straight time pay for all overtime, Sunday and holiday work.

Hostile feeling immediately was apparent.

"The proposal is absurd. We can not accept it," J. T. Carr, spokesman for the paper makers' union, declared.

"The skilled workers have had two large cuts the last year, last August a reduction was made which was equivalent to fifteen per cent. "It looks to me as though no paper will be manufactured in North American union mills after May 1, until some amicable settlement is reached."

EXPLORERS BACK WITH MANY SPECIMENS

Battle with Disease in South American Jungles.

New York, April 14.—After 15 months in the wilds of South America, three members of the Macfarlane expedition party have arrived here. They brought back two and a half tons of specimens, including beetles, roots, plants, fish, birds and many keys; tales of disease, and of constant battle against the deadly creatures of the tropics.

The men were Orland L. White, biologist of the Brooklyn Botanical garden; Nathan E. Pearson, ichthyologist of the University of Indiana, and Dr. William M. Mann, entomologist of the department of agriculture.

The expedition had many exciting experiences, but said their greatest trouble was with diseases. Hookworm attacked all the party, but the thing most feared was the "screw worm," which, White said, was extremely dangerous.
